About The McNeill Group

The McNeill Group provides law practice workflow analysis and customized law practice management systems design utilizing program such as Time Matters®, WORLDOX®, STI TABS III®, and Summation®. Time Matters is implemented through customized training workbooks and on-site training with a portable classroom using laptop computers. Robert S. McNeill, Esq., is a former Chair of the Maryland State Bar Association Law Practice Management Section. He has more than 20 years experience as a practicing attorney and legal technologist, and has been intimately involved in leveraging law with technology for over a decade. Since 1990, he has regularly presented educational programs to the MSBA, other bar associations, MICPEL, and national legal technology forums, and has taught law practice management systems into dozens of law firms, corporate law departments, and government agencies.
